

SPECIAL:
PRINCESS MARGARET AT WORCESTER.

52/62.

RB/OS.

As the Princess's car approaches Shire Hall, Worcester breaks bounds to cheer the Queen's sister. Princess Margaret had flown from Sandringham to Worcester for the occasion, and will attend an enrolment ceremony as part of her programme.

UP

SC. 2.

In the uniform of Commandant-in-Chief of the St. John's Ambulance and Nursing Cadets Princess Margaret first inspects the Cadet poster painted by Miss Anna Zinkeisen.

UP

SC. 9.

Passing the Guard of Honour of Bandmen cadets, Princess Margaret now leaves for Worcester racecourse to attend a monster parade.

UP

SC. 14.

With the Commissioner-in-Chief, Lieutenant-General Sir Otto Lumsden, and Chief Officer of Nursing cadets Miss Virginia Cunard, the Princess will inspect the parade of more than 3,000 members from all parts of the Midlands.

SC. 18.

UP

After the inspection, Princess Margaret presents awards. This is Peter Stevens of Birmingham, Ambulance Cadet.

SC. 22.

UP

After the presentations, the huge parade marches past the Commandant-in-Chief, a moving spectacle of youth giving its service for the good of the community and expecting no other reward than the knowledge of a good job well done.

SC. 27.

UP

Column after column they march past in a seemingly endless stream. It's a big day for Worcester and St. ~~John's~~ John's and despite the stifling heat - which caused more than 500 fainting cases - and could you choose a better time to faint than with all these helpers handy! - everyone's putting on a brave show for the Commandant-in-Chief, Her Royal Highness, the Princess Margaret.