

WINDSOR

ROME - During the Duke and Duchess of Windsor's sojourn in Rome, our camera got their car leaving the Pope summer residence at Castelgandolfo, where they had been granted a special audience by Pius XII.

Even while in Rome, the Duke hasn't neglected to play his favourite sport at the Acquasanta golf-links.

This admirer is unlucky in her tentative of getting a snap-shot of the Royal visitor, while the wind blows off her hat; but upon the whole, she was lucky enough since, after all, she might always be able to put the hat in a frame as a souvenir of a Prince exquisite politeness.
