

NEW BRIGHTON BELLES

The New Brighton Pool at Wallasey looks even more glamorous than usual as Britain's beauties parade for the title "Miss New Brighton of 1952." Make it a quick look gentlemen as we're going away for a moment to watch diving champions of England compete. Here's Ann Long of Ilford, the present title-holder.

But it's Durham's Charmaine Welsh who wins the title this year. Tony Turner from Highgate makes no mistake and gets first prize for the second year running. Now back to what all the gentlemen have been waiting for - the bathing beauties. Here's Miss Sidney Walker from Fleetwood.

Blaine Pryce from Bolton is worthy of close attention - and so are they all. It's a tough task the judges have taken on - don't you agree, sir?

Wallasey never saw such a bevy of beauty as this and they take quite a time to select the one who wins £100 and a silver rose bowl. But it's lovely Brenda Mee, a blue-eyed, golden-haired beauty from London, who finally wins the coveted title "Miss New Brighton of 1952."

BT/08.

The New Brighton Pool at Wallasey looks even more glamorous than usual as Britain's beauties parade for the title "Miss New Brighton of 1952." Make it a quick look gentlemen as we're going away for a moment to watch diving champions of England compete. Here's Ann Long of Ilford, the present title-holder.

UP

SC. 8.

But it's Durham's Chairman Welsh who wins the title this year. Tony Turner from Highgate makes no mistake and gets first prize for the second year running. Now back to what all the gentlemen have been waiting for - the bathing beauties. Here's Miss Sidney Walker from Fleetwood.

UP

SC. 13.

Elaine Fryce from Bolton is worthy of close attention - and so are they all. It's a tough task the judges have taken on - don't you agree, sir?

UP

SC. 18.

Wallasey never saw such a bevy of beauty as this and they take quite a time to select the one who wins £100 and a silver rose bowl. But its lovely Brenda mee, a blue-eyed, golden haired beauty from Londo, who finally wins the coveted title "Miss New Brighton of 1952."