

WATERFALLS

Once the most important and picturesque amongst Central Italy waterfalls, "Le Marnere" falls -- actually diverted for electric plants operation -- come back to life once in an year, and a small crowd is always there to see the spectacle.

Once Byron himself was inspired by this 160 meters triple leap of foaming waters, but now-a-days "Le Marnere" must serve the more prosaic needs of an industrialised world.

-----

INCOM'S EXCLUSIVITY

n. 47 = ft. 153