11th August, 1952.

Dear Sir,

A Press conference to explain details of the programme for Preston Guild, and to discuss facilities for reporting and photography will be held in the Municipal Building, Lancaster Road, Preston, at 11.0 a.m. on Tuesday, 19th August.

I cordially invite you to be represented at this conference.

The Guild, the first for 30 years, will be held for a week from Saturday, 31st August, to Saturday, 6th September.

I enclose a copy of the provisional programme, from which you will see there is great scope for newspaper stories and pictures.

Many Prestonians are returning from overseas for the Guild, and there will be many thousands of day visitors.

The Guild is an 800-year-old celebration of the granting of Preston's early trading charters. It is the only event of its kind still held, and is a unique memory of medieval days.

I should be glad if you would reply on the enclosed card, stating whether you propose to send a representative to the conference, in order that adequate arrangements for hospitality may be made.

Yours faithfully,

W. E. E. Lockley
Town Clerk.

GUILD HIGHLIGHTS.

Processions

The Roman Catholic procession will be led by Cardinal Bernard Griffin, Archbishop of Canterbury, two other archbishops and five bishops. It is expected that 30,000 Roman Catholics will take part, with tableaux and banners, and wearing colourful dresses.

The Church of England procession will be a remarkable witness of faith, offering fine opportunities for pictures.

There will also be a Free Church Sunday Schools procession, and a procession of Friendly Societies, with ancient emblems, banners and regalia.

The Trades' and Industries' Procession will be three miles long, and there will be about 100 tableaux presented by trading and industrial firms, workers' organisations and individual firms. The tableaux will be on huge floats and some are costing thousands of pounds to stage. The entire procession will be a remarkable display of Preston's products and craftsmanship.

The Guild will conclude with a great Torchlight and Carnival Procession through the town. This will include elaborate tableaux and fancy-dress.

Industrial Exhibition.

This will open on August 23rd, and continue for a fortnight. It will be partly in tented pavilions and partly in the open-air, and will cover nearly 200,000 square feet. It will be devoted entirely to the exhibits of firms within six miles of Preston. Viscount Swinton will open this exhibition.

Balls.

There will be elaborate Guild balls, and in a special ballroom erected in Miller Park there will be nightly dancing on a floor used by the Queen.

Children's Pageant.

Six thousand children will take part in a historical pageant in Avenham Park.

Merrie England.

A cast of 500 will give open-air presentations of Edward German's "Merrie England".

Overseas Visitors.

The Mayor will hold a special reception for visitors from overseas.

Royal Lancashire Agricultural Show.

The Royal Lancashire Agricultural Show has been specially delayed so that it can be held in Preston in Guild Week. It will be staged on Ashton Park.

Military Honour.

During the week Preston will honour its own Loyal Regiment by officially "adopting" it at a special ceremony.

Exhibitions.

Many exhibitions will be staged during the week: they will cover such varied subjects as Roman Catholic relics, technical education, astronomy (in the town's observatory), science, the town's charters, Guild rolls, plate and regalia.

Motoring.

A veteran car rally will be held in the week.

Broadcasts.

Plans have been made for at least five B.B.C. broadcasts.

Decorations.

An elaborate scheme of street decorations and illuminations will turn the town centre into a blaze of spectacle and colour. There is a £600 competition for householders who decorate side streets.

PRESTON GUILD - PRESS NOTICE

GENERAL PRESS PASSES will be issued to reporters and photographers. These will give facilities at all street processions, ceremonial events and will be generally accepted at all Corporation or Corporation-sponsored events.

FACILITIES for reporters at street processions will include seats on the official stand and freedom to move about the line of route and at assembly points.

FACILITIES for photographers will include places on a special Press Photographers' stand in the middle of the main street (Fishergate) along which the processions will pass, and also on two tower wagons to be parked at convenient points overlooking the procession routes. Photographers' passes will also permit free movement along the procession routes.

GENERAL PRESS PASSES will admit to the Industrial Exhibition and to the Royal Lancashire Showground for reporters doing general stories. Agricultural reporters and photographers should apply for their usual facilities direct to the Royal Lancashire Agricultural Society, Winckley Square, Preston.

PRESS FACILITIES will be available at all Guild events and ceremonies.

A PRESS ROOM with telephone and writing facilities will be available in Preston Town Hall (side entrance - Road Safety Department, Birley Street). This Press Room is within 100 yards of Preston Post Office.

PRESTON POST OFFICE TELEPHONES DEPT. has been warned that there may be a demand for picture wiring facilities during the Guild. They have agreed that such facilities can be arranged in the Post Office Telephone Exchange at short notice.

OVERNIGHT ACCOMMODATION. Local hotels are booked up, but visiting Pressmen requiring to stay overnight can be supplied with a list of private houses where occupiers are willing to provide accommodation at reasonable cost. Mr. A. Lorimer, Corporation Guild Press Liaison Officer, will supply this list (Tel. Preston 4881).

DRESS REHEARSALS. Photographic facilities will be available at the dress rehearsals of "Merrie England" and the Schools Festival (6,000 children in a historical and modern pageant). Times: Children's Festival - Monday, August 25th, at 1 p.m. in Avenham Park. "Merrie England" - Saturday, August 30th, at 5.30 p.m. and Sunday, August 31st, at 2.30 p.m. in the open-air theatre in Avenham Park.

EVERY HELP will be given to newspapers or visiting Pressmen by the Lancashire Evening Post (Preston 4841 - ask for Mr. Heywood or Mr. Eglin), the Corporation Press Liaison Officer, Mr. Alfred Lorimer (Preston 4881), or Mr. Norman Swift, Freelance correspondent, Butler's Court, off Fishergate (near Woolworth's) - Preston 2152.

IN ORDER TO FACILITATE PRESS ARRANGEMENTS IT WOULD BE APPRECIATED IF NEWSPAPERS COVERING THE GUILD WOULD INDICATE ON THE ENCLOSED FORM, AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, THE FACILITIES THEY REQUIRE. Passes will be sent on receipt of the form, together with car park and traffic arrangements.
