Exteriors This is not a very distinguished roll of film - there really was not much to it - Principally recording arrivals of Hierarchy for the Solemn Pontifical Requiem mass. Arrivals were very haphazard and at many points around the Cathedral. The large crowd (1000's) who could not get into Cathedral, followed the mass in the street through a P.A. system from

Probably 90% had rosaries in their hands Any C.V.'s will show this. Note last two clerics to enter Cathedral P.T.O

(from gate passing seated statue) are New Bishop of Cork and His Excellency Monseigneur O'Hara Nuncio Apostolic. There is a shot at end of this or start of Reel 3 of "Crush victim" being tended by St John's Am. Brig. etc.

visit to Belfast on Sept 3rd Do you want it covered.

I have about 600ft unexposed plus X in stock. and about 600ft exposed on the fishing stories (which fell down). As from about Sept 10th any further stock shipped should be in 400ft rolls wound emulsion IN.

Many thanks for passing on to Mr Tidy my request regarding personal accident insurance. This should be in hand soon as I have completed and returned to him the proposal form.

Yours faithfully

R. A. H. H. H.

P.S. Newspapers made it clear that many Priests would be in choir dress. So don't refer to them as "Choir boys." Anyone in procession in clerical or church robes was a priest, canon or Bishop etc.
