

2-480401

52/84

HER MAJESTY COMES HOME

The Royal Standard flutters again from Buckingham Palace, and London is London once more. The Queen is home.

The Royal train had travelled overnight from Scotland. Her Majesty has had a quiet and restful holiday at Balmoral. Her people hope she will not be set too strenuous a programme in the winter months to come, for a tremendous year lies ahead. Threefold are her duties - Mother, Wife and Queen.