

PATHE JOURNAL
6 rue Francoeur
PARIS(18) France

26-9-52.

b-f 80401

Paris, September 25th. 1952

VINE HARVEST IN MONTMARTRE
Paris, September 24th. 1952
Competition FOX MOVIE TONE
POSITIVE DEVELOPED: 41 meters - 137 ft

OK.

---

On the eve of the indefinite closing of the Famous Cabaret "TABARIN" the world known FRENCH CANCAN girls took part in the traditional Wine Harvest of the Montmartre vines.

The vines in the tiny vineyard of Montmartre hill at the back of the Sacre Coeur, are every year harvested and the vine is sold to the benefit of the POULBOT kids, kids of Montmartre.

This year the TABARIN, French Cancan girls made the harvest themselves, under the eyes of the Poulbot kids in their picturesque costumes, and even danced through the vines during the gay ceremony.