

LEEDS

GALA FILM PERFORMANCE

Crowds pack the streets in Leeds for a gala film show of "Because You're Mine," the picture that was honoured in London by being chosen as the Royal Command Film. Now in this Leeds cinema, some of the City's most distinguished personalities gather for a replica of that great occasion.

The Lord Mayor of Leeds watches as the Lady Mayoress is presented with a bouquet by an usherette. Now to greet Leeds's most honoured citizens come Sir George and Lady Martin, with their daughter. The stars are arriving outside the theatre now. Petula Clark, stage, screen and radio star is first.

The crowd surges forward again, this time for James Hayter.

Inside the foyer, Petula Clark is welcomed by the Lord Mayor and the Lady Mayoress - and here's Guy Middleton. Remember him as the gay rake in "Young Wives Tale" and "Laughter in Paradise?" Now Maurice Denham (man of many voices) arrives. Lovely Helen Cherry is next to greet the Mayoress.

Lisa Danielli, even more beautiful off-screen than on it, is followed in by burly Jack Hawkins. The top-line stars, and the City's leading personalities, make this the most glamorous and exciting night of the year.
