Dear Sir,

Further to my telephone conversation yesterday concerning your Department's coming visit to Faversham on November 6th., I am sorry that at the moment I am unable to send a copy of the Programme for this year as it is still in course of printing. The programme for a former year enclosed herewith will, however, give an idea of the proceedings, and a copy of the new programme will be sent you as soon as possible.

In the meantime, if you think it advisable for one of your representatives to "go over the ground", I shall be happy to give him every possible assistance.

Yours faithfully,

A. B. Epps
