

J. TURNER.

6th October, 1952.

(100 feet.)

QUEEN AND DUKE OF DINBURGH PLANT CROSSES IN GARDEN OF REMEMBRANCE AT WESTMINSTER.

Queen and Duke meet British Legion representatives.
Queen plants Cross.
Duke plants Cross.
Shots of Queen and Duke looking at crosses.
C.U. Queen.

NOTE Light doubtful - time 4.15 pm.

-----

J. TURNER.

6th October, 1952.

(200 feet).

LORD ROBERTS WORKSHOP 3 BROMPTON ROAD.

QUEEN MOTHER AND PRINCESS MARGARET VISIT WAR DISABLED EX-SERVICEMEN'S EXHIBITION AND SALE OF WORK.

-----

G.V. Lord Roberts workshop.
Arrival of the Queen and Princess.
Queen Mother and Princess look at various stalls.
C.U. Pictures of some exhibits.
C.U. Mrs. Alice Gimbere.
Queen Mother looks at exhibits on St. Dunstan's Stand.
Queen Mother and Princess talk to Mrs. Alice Gimbere.
Queen Mother talks to John Patchett - wounded in Palestine in 1946
now and invisible mender.

-----

VERY POOR LIGHT ON THIS STORY OWING TO DETERIORATION OF DAYLIGHT.

MRS. ~~XXXX~~ GIMBERE IS AN EX-WREN WHO WORKED AS A W.T. OPERATOR
SPECIAL BRANCH DURING THE WAR - OWING TO CONTINUED WORK UNDERGROUND, SHE WENT BLIND.

-----

ROYAL ROTA.