

DORTMUNDNEUHAUS KEEPS EUROPE TITLE

In the huge sports arena at Dortmund, West Germany, blond Heinz Neuhaus, heavyweight champion of Europe, defends his title against another German, Wilson Kohlbrecher.

The crowd sees a lot more action as Kohlbrecher swaps blow for blow with the champion. He's been putting in a lot of training for this fight, but Neuhaus is giving him as good as he gets.

Neuhaus lands a good 'un and Kohlbrecher didn't like it at all. Into the fourth round and Neuhaus lets fly with a right that puts Kohlbrecher on the canvas.

Back goes his head on the ropes and the fight is over. Neuhaus runs over to lend a helping hand to his defeated opponent. To heavyweight champion of Germany and Europe, Heinz Neuhaus, go the winner's laurels.
