

In Tokyo, Crown Prince Akihito is proclaimed Heir Apparent to the Japanese Throne. In colorful pageantry, the royal procession passes through the streets enroute to the palace ~~xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxx~~ where the attestation ceremonies will take place. To catch a glimpse of their prince, three hundred thousand people turn out.

As the royal coach nears the Imperial Palace the tremendous crowds cheer and wave their flags for the eighteen year old boy who will some day be their emperor. Prince Akihito solemnly poses when the rites are over.

~~In Paris the seventh annual conference of UNESCO, the United Nations Educational, Social, and Cultural Organization assembles. Retiring chairman Howland Sargeant of the United States presides as delegates from fifty-eight nations elect a new chairman. The second item on the agenda will be Spain's application for admission. The new chairman is India's Vice President Sir Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan by unanimous approval.~~