

REPLAY: NEWCASTLE v. SWANSEA

Newcastle United meet Swansea Town at St. James's Park before a crowd of 61,000 for the replay of their Cup Tie match that was abandoned by fog. Newcastle, in black and white stripes, force the ball towards the Swansea goal. The Newcastle forwards are without Jackie Milburn today, but they've a good substitute in Keeble.

Groves manages to beat the Newcastle attack. He gets the ball out to winger Medwin, who begins a movement to the other end of the field.

Allchurch chases it and fires in a hard one - but Newcastle block it, and it starts a tussle in the goal-mouth.

Welshman Palmer forces the ball away to Griffiths who tries to get in a centre. Right-back Cowell is there to intercept, and away goes the ball, back to the Swansea end.

The Newcastle attack looks dangerous for the Welshmen. A pass to the centre - Davies is there - but his shot goes high over the goal. That looked an easy one too. Davies tries to make up for that lapse. He centres to Keeble, and there it is! Newcastle are one up!

At half-time the score's still the same. Newcastle attack again, and up goes Groves to punch clear. Swansea winger Griffiths (who's dropped back to help in defence) races for the ball.

Griffiths beats two Newcastle players, but Cowell beats him in return - looks dangerous for Swansea. But goalie Groves is there to save the situation.

Swansea haven't had much of the ball up to this stage, but now they've got it, they're going all-out to even up the score. The ball goes behind for a corner.

Medwin takes it - but the Newcastle defence are standing firm. Swansea try to get it past them, but Mulgrew is there to relieve the pressure and away go Newcastle again for another raid on the Swansea goal.

Up in the goal area - Davies takes a slam - and it's in the net to make it Newcastle 2, Swansea nil!

Not much more time left, but Swansea haven't given up the struggle. They're attacking hard and playing sound football, but they still haven't been able to score. Here's another of their attacks that just fails to come off.

Newcastle get the ball again. Mitchell races up - and slams it home to make the final score Newcastle 3, Swansea nil. Wales are out of the Cup - and Newcastle seem all set to fight their way to the final again.
