CHURCHILL - JAMAICA.

Montago Bay Airport, outside Kingston, Jamaica, is crowded with ~~XX~~ island celebrities come to greet Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill - here for a vacation - - - Governor Sir Hugh Foot, the island's administrator, has a guard of honour turned out for the distinguished visitor - who will, while in Jamaica, be the guest of his millionaire friend, Sir Harold Mitchell,

The statesman is assured of lots of smokes during his two week stay - which he plans to devote to swimming, painting and resting in the strictest privacy - - But before retiring to his retreat Mr. Churchill makes a triumphal open ear tour of Kingston, acclaimed by the islanders from start to finish -
