Variety Club to Honour
Jean Carson
"The Musical Star Discovery of 1952"
at a luncheon, Savoy Hotel, 19th February with
Frank Sinatra and Jack Buchanan in Attendance

Miss. Jean Carson, the star from Emile Littler's Musical hit, "Love From Judy", will be honoured at the Variety Club luncheon, Savoy Hotel, Thursday, 19th February, as "The Musical Star Discovery of 1952." Miss. Carson will be presented with a large scroll upon which is written extracts pertaining to her from the London Critics' reviews. Each extract will credit the newspaper concerned and will bear each Critic's signature. The following inscription appears on the scroll: "A Star Is Born. A Tribute From The London Critics".

Jack Buchanan will present the scroll to Miss. Carson and Frank Sinatra will make the speech of tribute.

The Luncheon is 12.30 for 1 pm. The presentation and speech of tribute will take place at approximately 2.15.
