

CANTERBURY HONOURS PRIMATE

Dr. Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury, is presented by the Mayor and councillors of the city with a casket containing a scroll which bestows upon him the freedom of Canterbury. His Grace now signs the city's roll of freemen.

The Mayor, Councillor John Barret, hands the Archbishop the inscribed casket. Dr. Fisher is the third Primate of all England ever to receive this great honour.