

PATHE JOURNAL
6 Rue Franceeur
PARIS(18) France

Paris February 24th. 1953

BY PLANE TO SKIING FIELDS IN SWITZERLAND
Ciné Journal Suisse material
Dupenegative developed: 38 meters - 127 Ft.

Thanks to Captain GEIGER's ability, as a specialist of flying and landing in high mountains smallest fields, many Winter sports fans, are landing directly 2200 meters high in the Alps, on the summit'slopes of Mount-Lachaux in Switzerland, ready for a good sport.

Picture shows, the small plane flying over dangerous peaks of the Valsais Mountains, and landing on the Skiing field of Mount Lachaux, right amid eager skiers. He brings with him, a skier with his equipment and immediately takes off again for another trip.