

MONTY'S SON WEDS

Guests gather at St. Mary's Cathedral, Glasgow, for the wedding of Field Marshal Montgomery's son to Miss Mary Connell. Here's one of the four little bridesmaids.

Now the 10,000 crowd gets a glimpse of Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery, resplendent in the blue and gold full dress uniform of Colonel-in-Chief of the Royal Warwickshire Regiment.

And here comes the bride with her father, Mr. Charles Connell, a Clydeside shipbuilder.

The wedding ceremony over, David Montgomery and his pretty young wife come out into the warm Spring sunshine, the bride a picture in a dress of cream satin, her long tulle veil held in place by a pearl cord head-dress. She carries a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley and yellow roses.

Cameras snap the seven little attendants - but it's proud Monty who steals the final picture.
