

Lishman bowls over goalie Farn, and Legie is there to slam it home for Arsenal! Blackpool and Arsenal are "one all" with only a few minutes left for play.

Back come Blackpool. Allan Brown dashes through, goalie Kelsey dives at his feet and down comes Brown. Yes, it's a goal. But Brown is badly hurt. His left leg is broken from that collision. It's a tragic ending to a great performance. Thanks to Brown, Blackpool have won by two goals to one - but now comes the question: can they win through to Wembley without him?

BIRMINGHAM v. SPURS

(FOR BIRMINGHAM AND LEEDS TERRITORIES)

A big crowd of fans greet Tottenham Hotspurs as they take the field at Birmingham. They've a tough game ahead of them with the local boys, but anyway, they know they'll get their fair measure of support. The scene is set and the game is on! Birmingham in white shorts on the attack, showing their speed and vigour right from the start.

The ball comes in from the left wing. Medley heads, but over it goes to a Birmingham man. A few anxious seconds before the Spurs clear upfield and begin an attack.

Walters gets it and passes to Bennett. But Green of Birmingham is there to intercept.

Spurs keep plugging away at their opponent's goal, but Merrick is there to save.

Almost at once, Stewart starts a movement towards the Spurs' goal again. Wardle receives and shoots. It hits the post, but it's a goal! Birmingham have drawn first blood.

With the half time score still Birmingham one, Spurs nil, the local lads put on the pressure again. They've been playing really attacking football so far, play that keeps the Spurs on their toes.

Wardle gets it for Birmingham and puts on quite a display.

Wardle to Boyd who kicks forward. Outside right Stewart is there. He races towards the goal and shoots, but Ditchburn takes it, and Birmingham's raid comes to nothing.

Now Spurs get going at the other end. Medley and Bennett get together, but Merrick collects. Spurs just can't seem to get that equaliser.

At last Spurs get into their stride. In the Birmingham goal-mouth, the ball comes over to Bennett. He heads - and it's in the net!

With the score: Birmingham City 1, and Tottenham Hotspurs 1 at the final whistle, both teams get ready for the replay.
