

HARRIMAN LEAVES FAROUK

Princess Harriman and her mother, Madame Assila Sadek, prepare to leave Rome for Switzerland. They've a big pile of luggage with them on this flight from ex-King Farouk. Baby King Faud, Egypt's 14-month-old sovereign, is not with the Princess - he's still with father in a villa just outside Rome. Despite Farouk's denials that Harriman has sought a divorce, Italy's leading divorce lawyer later leaves for Switzerland. Farouk accuses Madame Sadek of influencing Harriman's decision to leave him - looks like that old mother-in-law story all over again!
