Opening shots Roll I 400 ft. Dublin Civil Guards who were banned by ^{an old} Govt. order from participating
- march out to regulate the men and women who will demonstrate on their behalf as well.

Opening shots of procession at St. Stephens Green Dublin. Dublin
Postal workers etc. who include Mr Norton T.D. former Cabinet minister (Deputy Prime minister)

Dublin. 2. Eye Shot.

Shots are from various angles and I have covered at various points on the route. Includes C.V.'s of some thousands of onlookers.
Parade was largest non political Demonstration ever seen in Dublin Centre of City. all traffic suspended or diverted for nearly 3 hours. End of roll is shot from elevated position. Many shots are directly against the sunshine Unavoidable due to angle of procession approach. May be some overexposure of foregrounds as result.

Roll. 2. — 170 ft approx.
Various shots of the Open shot.

meeting.

Includes shot (A.S.) of Norton sitting down on platform. Wearing (I think black hat) sitting on ~~right~~ left of speaker - he looks over shoulder away from camera during action.)

No comedy

relief. But notice a traffic sign "No Waiting" at back of platform outside

G.P.O.

I tilted up from "Waiting" to NO waiting - in case any use to tie up with the demonstrators claims.

Roll ends with applause from assembly.
