

102566-0
53/27

MR. BUTLER ADVOCATES TRADE DRIVE

Chancellor of the Exchequer Mr. Butler made this statement before disclosing his new budget:

"This year we have two great problems before us: to sell our exports abroad and to modernise and improve our industry. Mind you, we intend to maintain a high standard of living, so we must sell good products abroad at competitive prices. Everything depends on our success."