

U. N. NEWS

WEIST -- Aarseth

102540-4

X Sweden's Dag Hammarskjold is chosen to succeed Trygve Lie as United Nations' Secretary General by the General Assembly. Voting is by secret ballot but the decision is a foregone conclusion as Russia's Andrei Vishinsky had announced his support of Hammarskjold, along with American delegate Lodge.

(LIVE SOUND)

X Resigning from the post he has held for seven years, Trygve Lie bids and official farewell to the United Nations:

(LIVE SOUND)

X After a final round of handshakes, Lie is at the airport to greet his successor in the U. N.'s top administrative post.