

10-25-54-9

X This is Freedom Village -- first step for liberated prisoners of war in Korea. Marine engineering units are at work on the receiving center which will have barracks with showers, steaks with mashed potatoes, and clean clothes for the returning soldiers.

X The emergency hospital is equipped to handle the sick and wounded, with the best available surgeons, drawn from a half-dozen nationalities serving in Korea, ^{4(6.1)} ready on duty.

X A city is rising on what was once a battlefield as the United Nations prepares to welcome returning prisoners of war.