

Bangor

WELSH CUP FINAL

Up goes the coin as Rhyl meet Chester for the Welsh Cup Final at Bangor before a crowd of nine thousand. Rhyl, in white shorts, kick off, and straightaway start a forcing movement towards the Chester goal.

The situation looks dangerous for Chester, but goalkeeper Port is there to save this time. But it's only a matter of minutes before Rhyl get one past him, and Chester, led by Travis, hammer away at the Rhyl goal to get the equaliser.

A free kick against Rhyl gives Chester a chance - and a cracking shot puts it in the net! Rhyl and Chester are one all.

But hardly have the Chester players had time to congratulate, before Spendlove slams another into the net to put Rhyl in front again! That makes three goals within five minutes - a really sensational start to the Final.

Griffiths gets ready to face a free kick - looks like another chance for Chester. From a rebound, Windle gets it and takes a fierce shot - but it's just wide of the net and the score stays at Rhyl 2, Chester 1, until half-time. Chester attack after resumption. There's an appeal for handling but play goes on.

Chester keep pegging away at the Rhyl net - but they can't penetrate that solid defence to even the score up again.

Play swings to the other end, as Rhyl pile on the pressure. A centre over to Spendlove - and he taps it into the Chester net - but he's offside and the goal is disallowed. The score is still Rhyl two, Chester one, when the final whistle goes, so captain Tom McKillop collects the Welsh Cup on behalf of his team and takes it back to Rhyl again.