

SCOTTISH CUP REPLAY

Glasgow Rangers meet Aberdeen at Hampden Park for the replay of the Scottish Cup Final. Aberdeen kick-off and are soon on the offensive. In their first match, Ibrox and the Dons drew one all, so it should be quite a tussle. Hather's got it for Aberdeen.

In the Rangers' goal-mouth, keeper Niven saves an easy one. Aberdeen look the livelier team in the first half and press home every attack. Yorsten slams in a hard one, but Niven saves and Young is there to clear out of danger.

Grierson and Waddle combine for Ibrox and force a corner. At the other end goalie Niven watches it taken by Hubbard. The Dons' goalkeeper Martin keeps his net safe, and gets it out to Hather who's quickly away up the wing.

Hather passes - Young tries to intercept, but Hamilton who's been following up is there to keep the ball going towards the Ibrox goal. But like a lot of the Dons attacks, they just don't bring the reward they deserve.

From play up in mid-field, Rangers spring a surprise and breakaway. Grierson makes an opening, and Simpson prods it home. Rangers are one up!

Three minutes later it's half-time, and the score's still the same as Rangers keep up the pressure after resumption. They've really got the match-winning spirit in them now and seem to have pulled up their socks since the first half.

Simpson tries a header - but it's got no sting in it and doesn't give goalie Martin much trouble.

Back come the Dons to try and pull the game out of the fire. Hather's shot sends Niven down. No equaliser that time!

Niven's clearance gets Ibrox on the attack again.

Grierson's shot is easily blocked, but it starts a scramble that worries the Dons' supporters for a moment. But no more goals are scored for the rest of the match - yes, victory by one goal to nil goes to the Rangers. And there aren't eleven men in the whole of Scotland more proud of themselves than George Young and his cup-winning team.
