

BATTLE OF THE GIANTS

At the Royal Albert Hall, London, the boys with the beefy biceps go flat out to win honours in the Coronation Wrestling Championships. Mario Matassa, the one taking a bashing, is matched against Mike Marino, a mighty man who's challenging Matassa for the Heavyweight Championship of Europe.

Matassa gets up steam and there goes Marino.

Back comes Marino and whoops - down goes the champ.

A quick breather for Marino - and out comes Matassa ready for more. He certainly gets it.

Matassa doesn't much care for that sort of treatment and decides to show Marino he's not the Italian Champion for nothing.

There goes Marino again. But the champion's far from satisfied yet. Hands, knees and bumps goes Marino. He's out for keeps!

Away goes the loser to repair the damage. Mario Matassa remains the champion.
