1. CU. Hillery and Tensing, Hillery speaking:- (nat snd.)
 "My immediate plan for the future, I don't know, probably have a holiday like Colonel Hunt.
 J.P: And Tensing are you very happy.
 Tensing: speaks in Foreign Lingo.
 J.P: And How do you feel after twenty years climbing, to climb the Mountain.
2. GV. Press assembled in room at London Airport as Conquerors arrive.
3. LV. Everest heroes gather around mikes.
4. LV. Colonel Hunt he says:
 "On this wonderful occasion we have a number distinguished people to welcome you home, etc., etc.,
5. SV. CU. Brig. Head Minister of War saying:
 "I am here on behalf of her Majesty's Government to welcome you here to express our sincere congratulations on your great achievement, etc., etc.,
6. SV. Head speaking:-
 "The whole commonwealth was intensely moved on your great achievement.....We owe you a great dept for what you have done in the sense that it put our Country and Commonwealth on the map and inspired us at this particular time.... to Hillery and Tensing we salute you and we do think that the only two individual human being alive, to be in that position must be an experience, to both of them.
7. SV. Hunt speaking:-
 "I should like to answer that question in two parts first of all the reason really all those expeditions that before the war went to North Side and got so near the top, about 28,000 ft. More recently the brilliant Shipton in 1951 in which he traced the route, as far as we can tell, was one exactly followed by us. The most recently of all, of course, the magnificent effort by Swiss, last year, who got so near the top by the Southern route, the fact that they got there showed us that we could certainly get as far and there-

9. CU. J.P. Could I have your personal opinion on the empty arguments, on who got to the top first.
Hunt: I most willingly comment on that.

10. CU. Colonel Hunt:
"The matter couldn't matter less, it's not a question which any person climbing attaches any importance to, because it's work of a team, pan over to Hillery and Tensing.....
..... I think basically speaking, a big problem like everest, you are confronted with a challenge as in any other field of activity there is an an urge

11. CU. Hillery and Tensing pan across to Colonel Hunt.
J.P. asks: What are you immediate plans Col Hunt.

Col. Hunt: " I have not seen the programme layed on for us I hope to have a holiday, it's being called leave, and I am going home to see my family.

12. CU. Hillery and Tensing.

J.P: Can you tell what the worst moments were going to the top.

Hillery: 28,700 ft. we debated to go on, we debated to go on the summit, after that we were fairly pleased about it. our sensation to the lack of oxygen, was very dull.
