JEOP ROAD-RQ

At Yakima, near Washington, is held the world's first jeep rodeo. It's a rough and rugged race, but all the mud, bumps and pot-holes along the course can't discourage the men behind the wheel. They're out to get first prize whatever the obstacle.

Now for the hill-climb. It may be tough at the top, but getting there's tougher.

Jumping jeeps! Who put this road in the rodeo?

SPORTS -- 3

Little No, the defending champion, is quickly in her stride.

Maureen's point; she takes the first set, eight - six. In the second set

Miss Hart serves, with her opponent needing one point to win.

That's it. Maureen has done it again -- the tenth straight

Wimbledon victory by an American girl. AM

Tennis queen Maureen Connolly -- the mighty "Little No!"

Neither mud, nor bumps, nor bucking buggies can discourage twenty five determined drivers in the world's first jeep road-ee at Yakima, Washington.

The cross-country course is a mudder's paradise.

But things gets bogged down in the hill-climbing derby.

Man and machine -- over the top!

And now some broad jumping for distances.

Jumping jumping jeeps at the jeep road-ee!
