SHAH IN ROME

The Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlevi and Queen Soraya, coming from Baghdad, where they first flew Sunday deserting Iran to rule of Mossadegh, have reached Rome Airport of Ciampino Est in the early afternoon of to-day Aug. 18th.

To frame the royal couple proved an almost impossible job due to a strict police service protecting them from the assaults of newsmen.

The Shah and his Queen left the airport by car and will stop at the Hotel Excelsior in the Via Veneto.
