

53/66.

AMERICAN TENNIS.

America's Mulley and Talbert meet Australia's Rose and Hartwig in the final of the United States doubles championships. Rose serves....

The Australian pair play brilliant tennis that is the talk of the tournament. And Talbert nets it! Rose again to Talbert...

It's a swiftly paced final, and Rose and Hartwig have the Americans on the run. Mulley helps it on its way - out of court!

Hartwig to Talbert. Match point. Talbert returns and...yes That's it. An Australian combination wins for the fourth time in five years. And again Down Under comes out on top.