ITALY - MOTOR CYCLE STEEPLCHASE.

A national motocross race gets going at Pinerolo in Italy. What's a motocross,? Well, its quite simple. Just take one part of mud two parts of the Grand National course, mix 'em together - and there you have it.

Still going strong is Fencchie, champion of Italy, on a Gilera 500. And what fireworks - light the blue touch paper and retire - fast!

Now for the biggest hurdle of the lot. Going up - and, of the lift's stuck! One thing to bear in mind; if you're troubled by beat-seat drivers, you know the cure now. Stand by, for here comes the winner. It's fabulous Fencchie, once again the champion of all Italy.
