AIR ACTION IN INDO-CHINA.

Aircraft of the French and Viet Nam forces based in Indo-China, are prepared for a raid on Viet Minh terrorists. Recently, the enemy, well organized and equipped, have been holding their own against ground troops in many areas, so from now on round-the-clock bombing is the order for the air force.

From their airfield, somewhere in the Hanoi region, the 'planes, make for a terrorist hide-out using Napalm bombs.

The grim, violent struggle in Indo-China still goes on.
