

BURNLEY V. MANCHESTER UNITED.

White shirted Burnley kick off on their home ground against Manchester United, one of the youngest and most vigorous teams in the country. United's Dennis Viollet and Tommy Taylor give Burnley fans an anxious moment, but Goalie Thompson soon gets things going the other way. Burnley's inside left Shannon heads it - and he's scored! He took a bit of a knock in doing so, though its nothing serious.

Soon the Burnley goal is in danger. Slipping and sliding on the greasy pitch, the defence manage to scramble the ball out of harm's way.

But Burnley can't be put off quite so easily. Holden chases it half the length of the field, beating Foulkes all the way for pace. Up towards the goal-mouth - Holden shoots - a goal all the way! Burnley two up!

United swing into the attack. Berry beats 'em all with a brilliant dash before making his pass out to Tommy Taylor on the right wing. Taylor to Viollet who slides it in! When half-time comes the score is Burnley 3, United 2. Then Taylor evens things up. Now, at three-all, Burnley attack again.

The ball goes to twenty-two year old Jimmy McIlroy, Burnley's Irish International. He takes a tumble as he shoots - but its a goal! 4-3 now in Burnley's favour.

The Burnley offensive machine swings into action again. And a foul gives them another chance. Watch their free-kick.

In comes Gray, and there's goal number five, thanks to one of the oldest tricks in the game. Five-three it stays up to the whistle, and on go Burnley into the fourth round.

