

HEADINGTON V. BOLTON WANDERERS.

White shirted Bolton Wanderers get set at the Manor Road Ground, Headington, to tackle the home eleven. Headington, the only non-league club left in the F.A. Cup's fourth round, have grown from almost nothing five years ago to become the champions and cupholders of the Southern League. But they'll have to fight every inch of the way in this match, for Bolton weren't last year's "cup runners-ups" for nothing. What's more Bolton are quick to adapt themselves to the icy surface. Headington's biggest-ever crowd watch the Bolton machine go into action.

A corner to Bolton. Could be a goal here. 18 years old Ray Perry takes it.

Wheeler races in and gives Nat Lofthouse a chance. A flick of the foot and Bolton are one up.

Still fighting to become the Cup giant-killers, Headington with Duncan leading the attack, come storming back.

Pearl keeps the attack going with a pass to the centre.

Bolton get the ball out of danger and head for the home team's goal. Anxiously goalie Ansell waits for Perry to shoot - but he can't stop it. Another one to Bolton.

A corner to Headington gives Maskell a fairly easy one - but he's wide off the mark. And Headington still haven't scored by half-time. Bolton, with two in the bag, continue to hammer away when play resumes. Parry, number eleven, puts in some good work despite the slippery pitch.

A few moments later, Parry, takes a free-kick - and Moir heads it in'. Bolton three, Headington still no score.

Headington, may be down, but they're far from out. Smith, Duncan and Pearl team up.

Pearl shoots - and there's one for Headington.

Now Headington let their hair down and give as good as they've been getting.

Goalie Hanson and Pearl collide -, and all that ground's cold.

Hanson takes the goal-kick, and all eyes turn as it sends Bolton off on the attack again. Inside-left Stemens has it - and his shot beats them all. Four-one to Bolton.

Banks, (Bolton's left back) gives a neat display as he tries a sole run.

Headington have it again.

The ball goes to centre-forward Smith who hooks it into the net, Headington two, Bolton four. Headington's gallant, great-hearted team, go down fighting, Next stop for the Wanderers is round five - and perhaps Wembley again.
