

Ski Jumping Competition

10-58F701

- X 66. Flags on the hill 11 Opening ceremony at the Kullvik Hill, preceeding the special ski jumping competition. The flags of the Internation Ski Federation and the Swedish Ski Union adorn the flanks of the slope -
- ✓ <sup>no 3.</sup> 67-68. Salmenranta 11 The first long jump is performed by the Finn Salmenranta with 75,5 metres, for which he gets the score 101 -
- X 69. Lund jumping 7 Nisse Lund, Sweden, jumping 72,5 metres and getting 107 points
- ✓ <sup>no 36.</sup> 70-71. Evert Karlsson 12 Evert Karlsson, Sweden, 73 metres and 101,5 points
- X 72. Knarvik 4 Knarvik, Norway, 74 metres and 109,5 points
- X 73-74. Östman <sup>no. 47</sup> jumping 11 And here comes Eror Östman in his first jump, which will form the foundation for his fine third place in the whole competition to-day: 75 metres and 108 points.
- X 75-76. Erlandsson 10 Erlandsson retained his good standard from the Swedish championships: his jump here measured 72 metres and gave him 105,5 points -
- X 77-78. Pietikäinen 10 Finland's Pietikäinen, however, already now show unmistakable signs of the supreme master.

1934

flying away 76,5 metres and scoring overwhelming 114 points --

- ✓ 79-80. Falkanger No 67. 12
- ✓ 81-82. Wegman No 74 15
- ✓ 82-87. Sea of people 16

The great favourite Falkanger, Norway, has his unlucky day? 72,5 metres and 107,5 points -

The American had the boldness the other day to beat our best men, and to-day, after landing from his flight he is chalked up for 75 metres and rewarded 105 points -

There is a pause before the last round. The first one went through with perfection, and the 60.000 onlookers hardly had time to notice the cold. But now the nose-tips are beginning to feel numb, and a general buffeting is starting to set the blood moving. For it is cold, really, although for the first time within the memory of man, not a puff of wind disturbed the jumping competition in Källvik Hill.

88-90. Pietikainen 10

And now we let the last round be represented by Pietikainen's winning knock-out jump of 78 metres and 116,5 points.

91. The Finnish leader 3

The Finnish leaders are dumfounded from happiness --

92-93. Pietikainen 10

World Champion Pietikainen with his fellow countryman Heinonen second. This achievement together with the fine placements in the 30-kilometre race makes the day a Finland's day -

94. The crowd 3

The spectators warm up in hearty cheers for the two Finnish sportsmen --

95. Pietikainen 3

Their next encounter with the Norwegians promise something quite extra in the way of excitement, for we guess the latter are not willingly giving up their hill-jumping hegemony.
