UNDERWATER WEDDING

In Texas where things are always big or different, only two people are getting married-- Bob Smith and Mary Beth Sanger, underwater swimmers. Not a big wedding but different.

The two met under water while performing at the San Marcos Aquarena, and the management is going to see to it that they're married there. Afterwards they can come up.

Bob says "I do" and while fishes watch the ceremony, his bride says ~~for~~
A publicity stunt ends happily under water.
