

54/29.

BEAR TWINS.

Humburg Zoo has two new little stars to attract the customers: a pair of polar bears who had the very good sense to be born just in time for the Spring.

Into the tub they go to make sure their wooly overcoats are spick and span before they meet their public.

Like all youngsters, where mischief's to be found - that's where you'll find 'em - full of pep - and pep!

