

2-418201

SPECIAL.

O'BRIEN WEDDING.

54/33.

Newmarket-on-Fergus in Co. Clare is the setting for an Irish-American wedding. The Hon. Deirdre O'Brien is to marry Dr. Horace Beecher Chaplin, a New York specialist. Lady Inchiquin, the bride's mother, arrives for the ceremony.

Dr. Chaplin's brother, best man, escorts the bridegroom to the church. The bride's family have worshipped here for generations, but this is the first Inchiquin wedding to be held in the church for about fifty years.

The bridesmaids are the Hon. Grania O'Brien, the bride's sister, and Miss Mary Chaplin, the bridegroom's sister. And here comes the bride. She is the elder daughter of Lord and Lady Inchiquin whose home is Dromoland Castle in Co. Clare.

The Right Reverend Dr. Perdue is to perform the ceremony of marriage.

Cameras snap as from the church step the young couple now Dr. and the Hon. Mrs. Beechers Chaplin. Men employed at Dromoland Castle form a guard of honour to the gate.

The couple prepare to drive on to Dromoland Castle for the reception. In this ancient stronghold, where ancestors of the O'Brien family have lived for more than a thousand years, relatives and guests from five countries, including the United States, wish health and happiness to the newly-wedded pair.

7 ~~Kilmeelagh Church~~ at Newmarket-on-Fergus in Co. Clare is the setting for an Irish-American wedding. The Hon. Deirdre O'Brien is to marry Dr. Horace Beecher Chapin, a New York specialist. Lady Inchiquin, the bride's mother, arrives for the ceremony.

UP

35 Dr. Chapin's brother, best man, escorts the bridegroom to the church. The bride's family have worshipped here for generations, but this is the first Inchiquin wedding to be held in the church for about fifty years.

UP

55 The bridesmaids are the Hon. Grania O'Brien, the bride's sister, and Miss Mary Chapin, the bridegroom's sister. And here comes the bride. She is the elder daughter of Lord and Lady Inchiquin whose home is Dromoland Castle in Co. Clare.

UP

86 The Right Reverend Dr. Perdue is to perform the ceremony of marriage.

UP

101
123 ~~The young couple~~ Cameras snap as from the church step the young couple - now Dr. and the Hon. Mrs. Beecher Chapin. Men employed at Dromoland Castle form a guard of honour to the gate.

UP

161 The couple prepare to drive on to Dromoland Castle for the reception. In this ancient stronghold, where ancestors of the O'Brien family have lived for more than a thousand years, relatives and guests from five countries, including the United States, wish health and happiness to the newly-wedded pair.

Chapin - Chay-pin
Grania - Grawn-ya.