ZATOPEK AND ATHLETICS
Colombes Stadium Paris
Positive developed: 79 meters - 264 ft

In an international light athletics meeting organized in Colombes Stadium yesterday, and in front of 5000 athletics fans, Emil Zatopek the famous Czech champion, who has already the titles for 10000, 15,000 and 30,000 m. races, now sets a new mark for the 5000 m.

Zatopek had been invited to come to Paris by the French Track Federation and even though his trip was put off several times, and Friday last postponed according to officials, he arrived here on Saturday and took part in the race as a last minute entry. Running in his usual tortured and grimacing style he left the other behind from the very start and covered the 500 meters in 13'57" 2/10

The other contests shown on our picture are :

- in International female 100 meters : winner Ek GHISELLI, Italy (Nr.3)
- in International stick jumping: winner F GHIESA (Italy) with 4 m.20
second : SILLON (France)
- in international height jumping: THIAM PAPA GALLO, (France) wins with 1 m.97
