

C.E.A. SPECIAL NEWSREEL COVERAGE

PRINCIPALS: Mr Fuller General Secretary of CEA
Mr Whincup President of the CEA
Jean Clarke ..medel taking part of Mr Fuller's secretary.

The coverage is for a special story to be made up for showing at a performance in Harrogate during the CEA Annual Conference.

The idea of the filmed scenes is to show the General Secretary and the President "doing the town" together in London.

The trend of the story is filmed to run roughly as follows ;-

Opening scene shows Mr Whincup leaving Kings Cross Station and hailing a large limousine. He gets in and the car drives out of the station and pulls up at a bus stop along the road.

Having made his "grand exit" Mr Whincup gets out of the expensive limousine and moves to a bus stop. He waits. A bus comes along and he boards it.

We see the bus arriving at a Shaftesbury Avenue stop. It moves on and Mr Whincup is seen crossing the road to the CEA offices. He goes in 164 Shaftesbury Avenue.

We next see Mr Fuller the General Secretary sitting at his desk. He appears to be reading the "Cinema" which after a few moments he lays down. We see he is heading "Reveille"
Then follows a sequence in Mr Fuller's office of welcome to Mr Whincup with the aid of "glamorous secretary" and drinks.

After this sequence they leave the office and are seen walking down the street.

The secretary comes out, after they have left, looking for Mr Fuller who has forgotten to sign some important paper. She looks up and down the street and then sets off in search of them.

Then follows a sequence of Mr Fuller and Mr Whincup feeding at a restaurant..the " Chez Auguste". They have some trouble with the spaghetti.

The secretary is still trying to find them, and we see her at various locations ... the embankment, near Big Ben, the Duke of Yorks steps, Leicester Square etc.

Meanwhile the two men are seen feeding the pigeons in Trafalgar Square. They decide to investigate " Art" and are seen outside the National Gallery. They go inside.

Next scene they are seen coming out of the Windmill ~~xxxxxx~~ Theatre having "appreciated art" &

The girl is still looking for them, but in the meantime they are at the Regents Park Zoo.

We see them at the lions cage, the penguins, and in Pets Corner with some lovely Pets ! (The girls of Pets Corner). Jean the secretary is still looking for them, and is in the Zoo searching. They are then greeted by Mr Jiggs the large orang-outang and are entertained by him in his cage.

Jean finally catches up with them at Mr Jiggs cage. She gets Mr Fuller to sign the papers, but he is too busy to leave, they want to stay with Mr Jiggs .
