NEW LEADER TOURS MALAYA:

Lieutenant General Sir Geoffrey Bourne, the new Director of Operations in Malaya, makes an extensive tour of the country. The General, who took over the job from Sir Gerald Templar, goes deep into the jungle where the terrorists have struck many times. During his journey, he hopes to learn something of the Malaysians way of life. This is a granary in Selanger.

Now to a rubber estate to see how the precious fluid is tapped from the trees by Malayan women. The country's only coal mine is next to be visited by the leader of Malaya's fight against terrorism.
