QUEEN MOTHER REVIEWS BLACK WATCH:

Her Majesty the Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother visits Grail to review men of the Second Battalion the Black Watch who will soon be leaving for service in British Guiana. The Colonel of the Regiment, Lord Airlie accompanies the Queen Mother who is Colonel in Chief of the Black Watch. About 500 officers and men of the Second Battalion are on parade.

The Queen Mother makes her way to the saluting dais, for now the Second Battalion are to march past. Two years ago, Her Majesty honoured men of the First Battalion shortly before they sailed for Korea.

Following the march-past Her Majesty walks over to chat with relatives of the men on parade. Two and a half years ago the regiment was greatly honoured by being chosen to raise a second battalion once again. Old comrades of the Black Watch meet the Queen Mother, who, during her visit, wishes Godspeed to the battalion soon bound for overseas service.
