JEAN DESFORGES MARRIED

Jean Desforges, one of Britain's top athletes, is married at the Emmanuel Church in Forest Gate. Guests include pole-vaulter Geoff Elliott and hurdler Pam Seaburne. A secretary in Fleet Street and the European's women's long-jump champion, Jean Desforges now becomes Mrs. Ronald Pickering. Jean's husband is the games master at the school where the couple first met as children. Jean, who wears a wedding gown of ivory brocade, struggles through a great crowd of admirers to her car.

Jean Desforges hopes to continue her athletic career. We wish them happiness as she and her husband set off to Jersey for their honeymoon.
