

MILAN - HUMEX TAKES MITRI'S TITLE

In Milan the Middle-Weight Champion of Europe, Tiberio Mitri (in light shorts) is challenged for his title by Frenchman Charles Humex. Mitri, an Italian, took the title from Randolph Turpin in one round. Since then he's done great work, but he doesn't seem on top form in this fight. In the third round, Humex throws a good 'em and the champion shakes the canvas.

Dazed and shaken, Mitri staggers up for more. He's got a bad cut over the left eye. Humex wades into him again and for the second time, Mitri is down. Only a short count, Humex, out for the kill, tears into the Italian once more.

Mitri tries to cover up from the Frenchman's savage blows, but Humex forces him into the ropes and hammers him with fierce lefts and rights.

Gallantly Mitri tries to fight back, but all in vain. In steps the ref to stop the fight. The Italian isn't fit to continue. Charles, Humex by a technical knock-out, takes the European Middle-Weight Title back to France.
