

2-541201

51/90.

GIFT FOR SIR GORDON,

Sir Gordon Richards arrives at the Savoy Hotel (and here's Lester Piggott) for a dinner attended by many racing personalities in honour of the little knight of the turf. Australian Edger Britt and Eph Smith are there....so are Charlie Smirke and Tommy Gosling.

Lord Roseberry chats with Michael Beary and Billy Rickaby. This get-together is the racing world's way of marking Sir Gordon's retirement from the saddle. But his friends aren't likely to lose touch with him easily for, of course, he's now a trainer. One of his old rivals, Charlie Smirke, looks on as Sir Gordon accepts a silver tray from the hands of Doug Smith, this year's champion jockey. Billy Nevette joins the group as Sir Gordon poses with the handsome tribute from his brother jockeys.