BARUCH -- Aarseth

Senator McCarthy is "condemned" by a vote of his colleagues. A bi-partisan committee -- headed by Republican Senator Watkins -- originally had recommended McCarthy's censure after completing its stormy hearings. But last-minute amendments eliminate the word "censure" and the Wisconsin Senator is "condemned" for contempt of a 1952 Senate committee and attacks on the Watkins group. The substitute, two-count resolution is approved -- a Senate rebuke for Joseph McCarthy.
