

WOLVES BEAT HONVED:

54/98.

The Hungarian champions, Honved, challenge Wolverhampton Wanderers at the Molineux Ground, Wolverhampton. Nearly 60,000 watch the Wolves kick-off. Straightaway they're attacking up the ring wing, showing the courage that swept them to victory over Spartak. Hancock worries goalie Farago who has little time to recover before left-winger Smith has a go.

Machos leads the visitors upfield, but Williams is there. Shorthouse takes up the running. The Hungarians seem to settle down first on the mud-pie pitch. Now they're off on the raid that brings the first incident of the match. Budai, number seven, and Flowers give chase. The ball raps Flower's hand, and referee Griffiths awards a free kick to Hungary. Did he handle it or didn't he? No time to argue now, for Puskas takes the kick and Kocsis heads it home!

One goal down, Wolves hit back. Flowers kicks upfield, but only to start a movement by the Honved machine. So far the visitors seem to have control of the game, but the Wolves often take some time to warm up. Now Shorthouse and Swinbourne swing play round and head for Honved's goal.

Swinbourne must score! But Farago saves the day.

Honved are off again. The ball goes to Kocsis; on to Machos. Billy Wright's in pursuit -

2-nil now after that great goal by Machos. Wolves are in real trouble, and now Budai has it. Into the centre where goalie Williams fights desperately to keep the Wolves net clear.

Two-nil is the half-time score. Honved set the ball rolling, but soon there's an indication of things to come, for its Wolves who get possession. Away they go along the left-wing with a determined attack.

Smith sheets, but the ball shaves the post on the wing side. That shows that Honved's defence isn't impregnable. Wolves right-back Stuart sets his team off once more. Now incident number two as Kovacs obstructs in the penalty area. A penalty says the ref; Hancock takes it -

Two-one, and Wolves are coming back with a vengeance. Now out to the left-wing.

Wilshaw to Swinbourne who makes no mistake with a header into the net!
Two-all.

Two minutes later, and Smith races down the left-wing. Then he makes a perfect pass to Swinbourne, who cracks in his second goal; the goal that makes the final score 3-2 to the Happy Wanderers. Wolves have licked the greatest club in the world.
