F.A. CUP THIRD ROUND.

Cardiff v. Arsenal.

Wally Barnes of Arsenal and Alf Sherwood of Cardiff City meet before battle at Highbury. Cardiff, with a dark stripe on their shorts, kick off before a crowd of more than 51,000 who are soon on tip-toe as the home team swing into an attack. A centre from the wing gives goalie Howells a pile of work in the opening minutes of the match.

Howells clears away upfield and now Cardiff are out for blood. It was 27 years ago when these two teams last met in a cup match and then Cardiff emerged the winners due to an Arsenal error. Wally Barnes is the man who sends Arsenal back towards the Cardiff half.

Milton has it. His pass goes to Lishman who lobs it towards the goal. Howells is challenged by Tapscott, and it's Howells who wins the duel. Tapscott, net the ball, enters the net. There's no score until half-time so, with honours still even, play resumes. Cardiff are on the attack.

Ford shoots but Potheringham blocks the shot, and Bowen is there to swing play back into the Cardiff half.

The ball goes to Milton, and now it's Montgomery versus Milton.

But a Cardiff defender heads clear. With neither side playing in top form, the match nears its end. Cardiff hurl themselves against Arsenal's defence, but they can't get through to the net.

Cardiff keep up the pressure and Kelsey leaves his goal. Evans covers up for him, but all's well as Bowen clears.

Three minutes to go and Arsenal make a desperate raid. On now to Tommy Lawton.

And that's the only goal of the game, the goal that gives Arsenal a one-nil win over Cardiff and sends them on into round four.
